

E-Z Trail 10' Telescoping Spout for Hydraulic Augers

For best operation, make sure:

- The control rod is lined up straight from the bottom of the auger to the top.
- The lever on the bypass valve on the hydraulic motor is adjusted out as far as possible.
- The pulley with the rope that fastens to the top side of the rod is in the hole closest to the rod.

